

POWs and Morality Rate in the Pacific War: 1941 - 1945

Chart: D.2

- 1. As a comparative of 5m Soviet prisoners of war taken by the Germans some 60% (3m) died in prison camp. Of 3m German prisoners of war taken by the Soviets it is estimated that 30% (1m) died in captivity.
- 2. There were a negligible number of deaths of the 41,000 Japanese POWs held by the US and UK. However, it should be noted that an estimated 380,000 Japanese troops died in Soviet captivity after the surrender.