

Standard Oil Company and Affiliates Production: 1940-1945

Chart: H.2

Thousand
Barrels of Oil per day

650

600

550

500

450

400

350

300

250

200

150

100

50

0

1940

1941

1942

1943

1944

1945

In addition to production in the United States, Standard Oil rapidly increased production of its overseas affiliates during World War II from 340.7m to 513.2m per annum bringing the company's aggregate production to 1.19m barrels of oil per day. Standard Oil's production represented over 20% of US oil output by the end of the war.